FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Grand Opening of City of Dreams Takes-Off Like a Dream

Thousands witness opening night of Macau's new entertainment destination

Macau, Tuesday, June 2, 2009 — Melco Crown Entertainment Limited (the "Company") (Nasdaq: MPEL), a developer and owner of casino gaming and entertainment resort facilities focused on the Macau market, today announced that a highly successful Grand Opening Event at City of Dreams saw approximately 40,000 visitors experience Macau's newest integrated leisure and entertainment destination in the first hours of its operations. The opening night saw thousands of eager visitors queuing for the opportunity to take a first look at Macau's latest and most exciting entertainment centre in the hours leading up to the 8pm public opening on Monday June 1, 2009.

City of Dreams opened with an explosion of pyrotechnics and lights at an outdoor opening ceremony officiated by Mr. Lawrence Ho and Mr. James Packer, Co-Chairmen of Melco Crown Entertainment Limited and Mr. Greg Hawkins, President of City of Dreams, who hosted VIP official dignitaries; His Honorable Mr. Edmund Ho, Chief Executive of the Macao SAR; Mr. Lu Shumin, Commissioner, Office of the Commissioner of Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China in the Macao SAR; Ms. Gao Yan, Deputy Director of The Liaison Office of the Central People's Government in the Macao SAR; and His Honorable Mr. Francis Tam, Secretary of Economy and Finance of the Macao SAR.

Mr. Lawrence Ho, the Company's Co-Chairman and CEO, said: "City of Dreams is the ultimate destination for urban entertainment in Macau, and I welcome all of you to step into the property to see what we mean. We promise to amaze, delight, excite and to entertain.

"We have put great emphasis on recruiting and training our Dream Team of employees, who have really energized us with their enthusiasm and excitement over the past couple of months. We believe it is this combination of having the best people and the best property, which will underpin our success."

Visitors got their first taste of the exciting music-inspired Hard Rock Hotel, with its unique combination of electrifying music themes and memorabilia; the contemporary luxury and sophistication of the Crown Towers; and the diverse range of international and Asian restaurants, food and beverage outlets, bars and hip lounges which opened Monday night.

A huge success with excited visitors was The Bubble attraction, City of Dreams' iconic centre-piece dome-shaped theater which provides a stunning multimedia experience. Housing approximately 500 viewers for each spectacular 10-minute visual extravaganza, The Bubble ran at full capacity into the early morning of June 2.

Earlier in the day media and VIP guests enjoyed a series of opening events including a Press Conference, Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, Hard Rock Hotel opening 'Guitar Smash' by executives and a Grand Opening Gala Dinner, attended by VIP guests and dignitaries, followed the Grand Opening Ceremony on the lagoon at the front of the city complex.

Mr. Greg Hawkins, President of City of Dreams said: "Our incredibly successful opening night marks the start of our exciting mission to bring the ultimate in sophisticated and diverse entertainment experiences to Macau. We are thrilled by the excitement generated so far by our Grand Opening and are anticipating ever greater number of visitors from across Asia eager to experience for themselves this truly amazing destination complex."

The initial opening of City of Dreams will now be followed by the opening of Grand Hyatt Macau and the highly anticipated Dragone show. Grand Hyatt Macau, offering approximately 800 guest rooms, is scheduled to be completed in the third quarter of this year and the Dragone inspired theatre production will open in the purpose-built Theater of Dreams in early 2010. The final planned phase at City of Dreams will feature a luxury apartment hotel consisting of approximately 800 units.
